MAILED MONTHLY VOL 100-1

JULY 2020

"LEST WE FORGET"

Comrades,

Congratulations to all newly elected officers and wishing you have a great year. With all that is going on right now, we must not forget, that we as an organization are known as Veterans Taking Care of Veterans. I hope to see you this summer at the school of instruction in Russell.

Yours in Comradeship,
Ken Allred
State Commander
Dept of Kansas.

July - marks the start of a new year for the Department of Kansas VFW and hopefully all Posts are now getting ready for a great year.

Department Bulletin – if your Post has upcoming events in August through October, please email Department Headquarters the information.

Audit Report - June closed out the 4th quarter and the Trustees Report of Audit is now due. Email directly to Department Headquarters ksvfwhq@kfvw.kscoxmail.com or mail to PO Box 1008, Topeka, KS 66601 or fax 785-272-2629.

Mid-Summer - Department Council Meeting is scheduled for August 7-9 in Russell. A reception and banquet for the State Commander and State Auxiliary President will be held and everybody is welcome to attend. The reception/banquet will be PATRIOTIC themed attire. No formal attire for business meetings. *An awards program will be held immediately after the School of Instruction on Saturday, August 8th. The Wayne E. Richards, Elmer L. Jenkins and Esther McComb awards will be presented at the Saturday night banquet.

Department Roster book will be available at the Mid-Summer meeting to Post Commanders and Quartermasters, District and State officers.

Buddy Poppies - Posts who owe for poppies should remit payment to Department Headquarters as soon as possible.

Holidays - in July for displaying the Flag are: July 4th - Independence Day.

Congratulations - to all newly elected Post, District and Department Officers. Let's make the 2020-21 year successful by PLANNING – PROMOTING - and FINISHING THE JOB early.

Officer's Eligibility - All officers, elected or appointed must provide proof of eligibility to the Post, District or Department. See Section 216, (Manual of Procedure).
